

Ruth: God Gives Ruth and Naomi a Good Friendship Ruth 1–2

Naomi is Ruth and Orpah’s mother-in-law. When all three of the women’s husbands die, Naomi leaves to return to her hometown. Ruth goes with her and promises to be a loyal friend. Ruth and Naomi help each other find food and get through a hard time. God gives us friends.

Church Announcements

- [Type your content here]

“Live in harmony with each other. Don’t be too proud to enjoy the company of ordinary people. And don’t think you know it all!” (Romans 12:16).

Family Together Time

- Have a “best friend” party this week.
- Make sure each family member chooses a friend to invite to the party—including Mom and Dad!
- Work together to decorate, make snacks, and plan fun activities to do with your friends.
- If your best friends live far away, use a video chat program to include them in the fun.
- Throw the party! Make sure you thank God for giving you such awesome friends.

Talk About This...

- What qualities do you look for in a friend?